I.A.T.S.E. 478

During his 15 years of industry experience, Niko has contributed to the authenticity and visual appeal of highly successful TV, cinema, and streaming series. His creativity, collaborative nature, technical expertise, adherence to budgets, and positive attitude have earned him the trust of producers, directors, production designers, and crew members. His adaptability and high standards have enabled him to respond to rapidly shifting demands. Guided by extensive research and an eye for aesthetic details, Niko can make magic happen, regardless of the constraints of production. Currently, he is best known for his work as the property master for Stranger Things, The Walking Dead, and Tulsa King.
