Getting to Los Angeles

1

Hollywood Burbank Airport (BUR) preferred by locals: Usually worth paying a little more for the convenience and time saved.

It is smaller and easier to navigate than LAX, and is convenient to Hollywood and Paramount.

LAX: Very large. Allow extra time to get outside the terminal and then reach the designated rideshare pickup area

Black rideshares pick up directly at the curb, but are considerably more expensive.

After getting your luggage, look for the bus stops with green signs. These buses will take you to the rideshare pickup lot.

3

Local tip: If the airfare difference is not significant, Burbank is often worth it for convenience and time.

A few practical notes

Los Angeles is enormous and traffic can dramatically change travel times. Please give yourself more time than you think you need, especially when traveling to a studio or event. Rideshare is recommended for the awards evening.

Weather

Expect typical late-summer warmth with historical average afternoon highs around 82°F to 84°F (28°C to 29°C) and overnight low temperatures dropping to a comfortable 62°F to 64°F (17°C to 18°C).

Packing

In addition to formal wear for the awards ceremony, it's recommended to pack with light layers in mind. It's been an extremely hot summer in Los Angeles, but a light jacket or sweater is advisable, especially if you are staying near the ocean. Comfortable walking shoes are also recommended, and remember your sunglasses.
